I would like to inform you, that our league received good publicity in February issue of Chess Life, which is read enthusiastically all over the world.

Locally, we are making progress also. Recently I have added to our mailing list Mr. Donald A. Amirante from the Metropolitan Life, who is a friend of Grand Master George Koltanowski. Mr. Koltanowski, as you know, is writing for Chicago Sun-Times and is seen on channel 11 every Tuesday night at 10:30 pm. Through Mr. Amirante our bulletin will be exposed to Mr. Koltanowski, and some material could possibly wind up on the pages of Chicago Sun-Times.

I would like to ask all team captains to multiply and distribute the bulletin as soon as you receive it. The reason is our problem solving contest. As this season nears the end, the problems will become harder and harder. Your team members will need every additional day which you can save for them.

The membership of the "forfeit club" has increased from nine last month to ten as of February 22, 1969. The three teams who successfully managed to stay out of it are: ANL Bishops, Chas. Bruning Company, and WE Gambiteers. C O N G R A T U L A T I O N S !!!

The answers to problems #9, 10, 11 & 12 will be printed in bulletin #7.

Don't forget about the 1969 Greater Chicago Open which will be held at Sherman House on March 15-16 and March 22-23. I hope to see many of you there. This is the last call!
