

CHICAGO INDUSTRIAL CHESS LEAGUE BULLETIN

Vol. XII

November 8, 1968

No. 3

Editor & Publisher: Nick Goncharoff- Motorola, Inc.
9401 W. Grand Ave.

Problems: James Warren- 5383 Woodland Ave.
Western Springs, Ill. 60558

Since nobody during the last month had sent me a game for publication, I had to look for it in my own files. I hope you like it.

The response to problems this season is above expectation. The secret to it probably is our announcement in bulletin # 1. It states that three trophies will be awarded to the top three problem solvers, rather than the book prizes which have been awarded in the past.

Our treasurer, Daniel Kumro, informs me that Teletype, Perma-Power and First National Bank still did not pay their dues for 1968-69 season. Remember, after December 1, 1968: NO DUES -- NO BULLETIN!

Ray Lauth from Illinois Bell Telephone informed me that he has a new telephone number --727-7163.

The membership of "forfeit club" increased from two last month to five as of November 8, 1968. The leader is First National Bank with eight points. Fifteen points needed for one year probation.

At this point I will stop to remind you that November 28, 1968 is Thanksgiving Day.

HAPPY THANKSGIVING TO ALL!
