junior division report...by ned anderson

North-West Sections

Steve Karlovics of Zenith-Baulands is carrying over his winning ways from last season. Three straight victories thus far with his latest victum being Bob Keske of Amoco. Nice going Steve.

Just as a reminder, all team captains are to rank their players honestly according to their strength. If you believe an injustice is being made in the line-up, notify the opposing team captain that the match is being played under protest and send your protest in along with the score sheet.

Simo a Great Success

On December 3, 1975, WECO sponsored a Simo Exhibition by Jim Warren. The turn out was better than anticipated with 23 players and several spectators in attendance. The festivities started at 7:00pm with a short introduction about Jim's career and then a few of the rules to be followed that evening. Everyone was curious and things moved along comfortably, if not slowly. As I said before, the evening of chess started about 7:00pm and the last player's board was resigned about 1:00am. The results follow with the ratings of those players rated in the CICL. This event proved to be very rewarding for everyone involved and we hope to have another simo toward the end of the season. Maybe some of our top players could combine their talents and take on all challengers.

Regards to Jim

This writing is only intended to express to Jim Warren the deepest gratitude and respect of both myself and all the participants and spectators that attended the simultaneous exhibition he held on Dec. 3. I have received numerous comments both about the enjoyable evening spent by the participants, but much more, the admiration of the people for what Jim put himself through. He played non-stop simultaneous chess for six hours. He paused once for 5 seconds when I asked if he wanted to take a break, he said no and went on.

Thanks Jim, for allowing twenty three other people to experience a memorable chess evening.

Gary Vondrasek

(On page 5 there is an account of this evening.)
