CICL RATINGS

RATING NEWS by Terry Andresen

Included in this bulletin is a complete list of players by team, including their season won-lost records and the rating changes for those who played 25 or more rated games before this season.

Also included in the ratings are an exhibition match between Motorola and ITT, and two round robin tournaments held at Argonne National Laboratory. Pullar of Sara Lee and Gibbs of First National Bank were given initial ratings equal to their USCF ratings, and all ratings were recalculated.

This rating information is considered valid and final unless notification of error is received before the next CICL business meeting.

CICL BANQUET

Thanks are due Charlie Ward, who acted as host in the absence of league officers, and Jim Gehrke and his staff, who did a fine job of organizing the banquet.

The speed chess tournament after the banquet was well run and a great deal of fun. Results will appear in the next issue of the bulletin.

team entries is November 1, 1977, and play begins in January 1978.

The results of the last round of the League and the standings of the teams follows:

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

TWO AMERICAN WOMEN ACHIEVE INTERNATIONAL TITLES

In a pursuit usually dominated by men, two women chess players have achieved the distinction of an international title. The Office of the President of the World Chess Federation has announced that Diane Savereide, of Santa Monica, California, and Ruth I. Orton, of Fayetteville, Arkansas, both 22, have been selected to join a group of only 110 International Women Masters in the world and only five others in the United States.

Savereide and Orton both acquired their titles as a result of their results in the Ladies' Zonal Tournament held in Milwaukee in July 1975. Both women obtained results in the Zonal Tournament entitling them to participate in the Ladies' Interzonal Tournament in 1976.

Diane Savereide won the US Women's Championship in 1975 and successfully defended her title in 1976. A literature major at UCLA, Miss Savereide began playing chess at age 17. She and her brother had been playing chess for about a month when they read about a local chess tournament near their home in California. She entered and has been playing her way to the top of the women's chess world ever since.

Mrs. Orton placed second in the 1975 US Women's Championship. She has been a student at the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville, where her father, Dr. Robert C. Haring, holds a professorial post. Her husband, William R. Orton, III, is an expert chess player, whose rating has now been exceeded by that of his wife.

Manhattan Chess Club

For those interested in tournament play, the Manhattan offers, in addition to its prestigious junior and club championships, a wide variety of quadrangulars, round robins, weekday evening sections, rated matches, Swiss system contests, invitationals, cable matches and rapid tournaments.

One has a sense of history in visiting this famous club. Oil paintings of the immortals of chess adorn the walls. Trophies and plaques attest to the achievements of its members. Its one hundred year old chess library contains many rare and valuable items. The greatest names in chess have visited and played here. Capablanca died in the club and in a chess sense the greatest player of all time, Bobby Fischer, was born here.

Current members include Grandmasters Pal Benko, Arthur Bisguier, Robert Byrne, Reuben Fine, Robert J. Fischer, Anatoly Lein, William Lombardy, Samuel Reshevsky and Leonid Shamkovich; International Masters Arnold Denker, Sal Matera, Michael Rhode, James Sherwin and Bernard Zuckerman; International Woman Master Gisela Gresser and twenty-two U.S. Masters. A very strong junior contingent is headed by International Master Michael Rhode, at 17, the youngest U.S. IM besides Fischer; Joel Benjamin, at 13, the youngest U.S. born Master ever; Barry Popik, North American High School Champion; Mitchell Goldberg, National High School Co-Champion and John Jarecki North American Elementary School Champion.

Centenary celebrations began in May with the 1977 Moses Mitchell Tournament of Champions with GM Anatoly Lein winning. A wide variety of programs are being planned for the remainder of the year includin
