President Report

Although the annual awards banquet is over seven months away, I do not think that it is too early to request one or more volunteers for a committee to make arrangements for this event. We will also need at least one volunteer to direct the speed chess tournament that traditionally accompanies the awards banquet. As for the trophies, last year's trophy chairman, Frank Tegel, has indicated a willingness to take care of trophies again this season, but he probably would not mind some help. Ray Fabijonas is willing to direct our annual spring tornado, but it would be nice if we had a volunteer to see to it that the event is publicized in the Illinois Chess Bulletin (the bi-monthly publication of the Illinois Chess Association) and Chess Life magazine (put out monthly by the USCF). Perhaps this year that event can draw more than ten players with some publicity.

I agree that it is a little early to bring up these matters, but by doing so, hopefully, we can have things well under control next spring. To volunteer, simply call me: days 681-6948; evenings 325-6140.

Ratings chairman Charlie Ward has informed me that the accompanying rating list contains only those names and ratings of players who have a rated result entered into the computer by press time. That is the reason no Eastern Division players appear on this month's list. Also, I would like to ask any teams that have not yet remitted their team dues to league treasurer Jim Brotsos to please do so soon.

Martin J. Franek
