REMEMBER TO RESERVE A PLACE FOR THE SIMULTANEOUS EXHIBITION!!

Send in interesting games for publication to Bruce McNeil or Wes Underwood.

CICL SIMULTANEOUS EXHIBITION

The CICL has confirmed the presence of International Grandmaster Arthur Bisguier at Amoco Labs on Monday March 10, 1986 to play a simultaneous exhibition for between 30 and 50 players. This is an unusual chance for players of varying strengths to play a Grandmaster with a much enhanced chance of winning! Simultaneous exhibitions are always a lot of fun. Amoco Labs is a site that has excellent playing conditions, and that is being contributed to the event at no cost to the CICL. Participation in the event will speak loudly about the interest and support of chess by members of the CICL. It will also play a role in decisions concerning future events for and by the CICL. Let's make it a goal to have at least one member present from each team! Reserve a place now for $12 per person -- after February 10 the cost will increase to $15. Send your check (made out to the CICL) to Wes Underwood, Department of Chemistry, Wheaton College, Wheaton IL 60187. This event is open to CICL members and their guests. After February 10, if there is any space available, it will be open to the public. Don't wait! Reserve your place now...

BRING ALONG A CHESS SET IF YOU PLAN TO PLAY!!!

Here's a response to Dave Baurac's decision concerning a game in the recent match between Rockwell International and J. I. Case, printed last month:

The Laws of Chess provides a description of the official game of chess. And one of the provisions of chess statute describing the game of chess is Art. 3.3 which defines what the initial position of the chess pieces are in a chess game.

In the game Rich Lasken-Sam Solemani, on board 5 of the J. I. Case vs. Rockwell International team match, the kings and queens were interchanged. That game, therefore, did not comply with Art. 3.3 of the Laws of Chess.

It seems to me that any game that fails to comply with Art. 3.3 of the so-called Official Rules of Chess cannot qualify as a game of chess, and is a non-chess game as checkers, backgammon, etc. And because the game Lasken-Solemani violated Art. 3.3, the result of that game should be declared null and void in the same manner that the result from a game of checkers, bridge, or any non-chess game is null and void in the CICL.

Respectfully,
Ruben R. Reyes (SEARS ROOKIES)

Editor's response:

Referring back to Article 9.4 of the Official Rules of Chess, as cited by Dave Baurac: "If, during a game, it is found that the initial position of the men was incorrect, the game shall be annulled and a new game played." It is key to note that the position of the men, if incorrect, must be found during the game.
