Chicago Industrial Chess League
Meeting of August 24, 1988
Motorola, Schaumburg

1. The meeting was called to order by CICL President, Bruce McNeil at 7:40 p.m.
2. Fred Ciba read the secretarial minutes from the April 18, 1988 business meeting. They were approved unanimously.
3. Jim Brotsos delivered his treasurers report. Some highlights... The June 17, 1988 awards banquets brought in a $161.26 profit. Jim attributed this to some teams not showing up, no flowers for the head table and no gifts for lady guests. Jim felt that we went "bonkers" on trophies this last season. The total was $901 vs. $608 last year. It was felt by teams present at the meeting that this years functional awards were a good idea. More money will be allotted for this in the future. Discussion took place concerning computer costs. Charlie Ward saw no point of putting more money into our computer sinking fund. All agreed. It was also agreed by member present, spearheaded by Wes Underwood, that we would no longer pay insurance premiums on our computer. Brotsos' complete report was passed out at the meeting. You can obtain a copy from your captain.
4. Marty Franek volunteered to be the CICL Bulletin Editor for the 1988-89 season. He was roundly applauded.
5. A discussion took place over Pro Con team's request for a partial refund of their dues based on a shorter than usual playing season. President, Bruce McNeil's decision to decline their request was supported by members present. Charlie Ward suggested that Division Chairman make a point of scheduling at least 10 games a season.
6. Bruce McNeil called for a volunteer to run the June 9, 1989 banquet. None stepped forward. Bruce will approach Jim Warren and Don Graft to see if they might repeat another fine performance in this capacity.
7. Bruce McNeil called for a volunteer to be the trophy chairman for the season. West Underwood stepped forward and was appointed.

8. Bruce McNeil called for a volunteer to organize and run the next Tornado. No one stepped forward. Playing sights were discussed, but without a director, nothing was decided.
9. The Chicago Mercantile Exchange was voted into the league. They will play in the East division. Larry Gavin will be the captain. Other teams were discussed as possible future nominees.
10. Bill Friesema was voted into an Alumni team. Alan Losoff's nomination was rejected.
11. Irwin Gaines was voted in as the Far West Division Chairman. Irwin also agreed to organize this years Allstar Match. He was roundly applauded for his previous effort.
12. Wes Underwood made the following proposal...

"A team that becomes eligible for the playoffs is required to declare, in advance of the playoffs pairings, its intent to compete in all three rounds of the playoffs. Failure (for any reason) to field a minimum of 5 players for each of the three rounds will disqualify that team for eligibility for the following year."
13. Bruce McNeil closed the meeting at 9:12 p.m.

TO: Team Captains
 FROM: Jim Brotsos, CICL Treasurer
 SUBJECT: Statement of Charges for 1988-89 Season

Below are the assessments to each CICL team for the 1988-89 season. Please complete the appropriate blanks, determine your team's charges, and mail your check (payable to the Chicago Industrial Chess League). At the April 13, 1984 business meeting, it was agreed that late payments would carry penalty charges similar to bills from utility companies. Our Policies and Procedures call for teams to pay their dues by the first week of November. Payments postmarked November 30th or later will carry a $5.00 penalty fee. Payments postmarked December 31st or later will carry a $10.00 penalty fee. Any teams not paid up by the beginning of 1989 are subject to dismissal from the League's team tournament, and will not be allowed to participate in the following season without league consent.

The following game and accompanying comments were submitted by Marvin Cox of Alumni Central (East Division). This game was played on May 18, 1987 in round two of the Alumni playoffs:

White	Black
F. Suerth	Marv Cox
Exemplars	Alumni East
1. P-K4	P-K4
2. N-KB3	N-QB3
3. P-Q4	Scotch Game strives for center control and quick attack. PxP
4. NxP	A developing more instead of this recapture would go into the Scotch Gambit which is highly anti-drawish. N-KB3
5. N-QB3	Threatening P-K5. P-Q3
6. NxN	PxN
7. B-Q3	B-K2
8. P-QN3	B-KN5 Prevents Q-KB3 to pressure black's pawn on his QB3. Note this pawn's weakness the entire game.
9. P-KB3	B-K3
10. B-QN2	O-O Two powerful white attacking bishops!
11. O-O	N-Q2 A retreat is usually bad. Here, black wants better control of his K4 and to place his B on his KB3. Wishful thinking?
12. Q-K1	P-KB4 Nimzowich's famous "sawing position" intending to trade off white's huge center KP.
13. P-KB4	N-QB4 Not PxP 14.QxP B-KB4 15. QxQBP
14. R-Q1	Further pressure on the center as well as a masked attack against my queen. PxKP Hurray. The huge KP is gone.
15. NxP	NxB My uncle always told me that when under attack trade everything off so the enemy has nothing left to attack with.
16. RxN	B-KB4 Another attempt to trade.
17. R-KN3	This caught me by surprise. RxKNP would ruin me. R-KB2
18. N-KN5	BxN Trade it off, of course, per my uncle's advice.
19. PxB	Q-Q2
20. R(3)-KB2	QR-KB1
21. Q-QB3	At this point let's stop and look at my squares KN2 and KB1. There are 4 attacks on this group of 2 squares, namely the white queen and bishop, and also the two white rooks have a masked attack. There are only 3 defenders of those 2 squares, namely my black king, my black rook on my KB2, and my black queen. Importantly, note that the black rook on my KB1 does not count as a defender since it occupies one of the 2 squares under attack. My uncle pounded into me the "Law of 2-Squares" which states if 2 squares are attacked more times than they are defended the squares may fall. This is an extension of the idea if a piece is attacked more times than defended the piece may fall; the piece attacked is not counted as a defender.

21. ... Q-K2, If I had moved the bishop the four attacks vs. the three defenders of the 2-squares could have been utilized by white. He simply would have sacrificed his queen at my KN2, which is one of the 2-squares, and mated by RxR on K1 which is the second of the 2-squares.
22. P-KR4 B-K5 I can now move by bishop because I'm guarding my K1.
23. R-K1 White unwisely let up his attack against the 2-squares to set up a pin of the black B against the black Q.
P-Q4 I'm willing to give up my QBP to start my attack.
24. QxQBP White moves another piece away from his 2-square attack. Now let's try to "Law of 2-Squares" again. This time look at black's KB6 and KB7 as a new set of 2-squares. Black has 3 attackers: 2 rooks and aB. White has 2 defenders: his K and KNP. Remember, his R on his KB3 doesn't count as a defender because it is on one of the 2-squares.
RxR The 2-squares now has 2 attackers and 2 defenders
25. PxxR Q-KB2 Now black has 3 attackers against the 2-squares, namely Q, R, and B. White has only one defender: his king.
26. R-KB1 Q-KB5 Black still has a 3 to 2 attack against the 2-squares.
27. Q-K6 ch K-KR1 A check? Who cares. My 2-square attack is still on.
28. Q-K7 Looking for a quick mate. Much better was Q-KN4 to help defend the 2-squares.
Q-KN6 ch Drives off the K as a defender of the 2-squares.
29. K-R1 BxP ch The 2-squares fall. I can almost hear my uncle saying "We win."
30. RxB QxR ch
31. K-KR2 Q-KB7 ch White would have loved 31. --- R-KN1
32. BxPch RxB
33. Q-K8ch R-N1
34/ Q-K5ch drawn
32. K-R3 R-KB3 ch
33. K-N4 R-KN6 ch The white diagonal must be cleared for the black Q as this diagonal contains the only access to white's KR5 square.
34. Resigns.

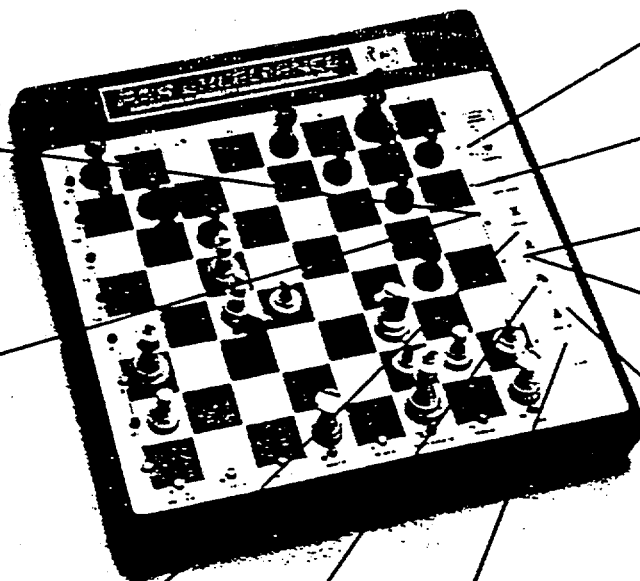

I hope this introduction to the "Law of 2-Squares" is helpful and educational. Set up your own examples on the board until you understand it. A large percentage of 2-squares examples are simple combinations. My uncle told me to expand the concept to obtain "Law of 3-Squares". The 3-square examples are generally complicated combinations.

USCF's Summer Computer Blow-Out!

The last word on the first name in chess computers:

Par Excellence: $149

Options key! A gold mine. Reverse colors, choose EASY MODE for novices, clear the board to set up positions for Par to analyze.

New Game key! Start over with one push.

Verify key! Confirm a game position instantly.

Take-back key! Erase mistakes — even whole variations!

This key also lets you enter Par's selectable opening library. Practice your favorite openings!

Move key! Force Par to move immediately.

The Par. The Fidelity chess computer that's so famous, you call it by its first name. And since you're on a first-name basis, we don't need to tell you about all its great features. You already know about the selectable opening book, the mate-solving mode, the hint key, the 12 level settings. You know about the Par's official USCF rating of 2100.

In fact, the only way this great computer value could get better was for USCF to cut the price. Which is exactly what we did. For a limited time only, save $52 off the Par's regular low price! You get this great training partner for just 7¢ a rating point. No traps, no pitfalls — no swindles.

So whether you're a novice or a National Master, get the chess computer that's the favorite of chessplayers the world over — the Par Excellence. And save $52 while you're at it. Now that's a winning combination!

Satisfaction guaranteed

If you're not happy with your new Par, send it back within 15 days, with all original packing materials, for a full refund. If you think it's a winner, you'll be glad to know that the Par comes with a 90-day warranty against manufacturer's defects.

Price Buster!

$50 Off the Excel 68000 Mach II

(while quantities last)

Looking for Fidelity dependability with a souped-up microprocessor? Then the Excel Mach II's the machine for you.

The Mach II's software runs 30% faster than any previous Fidelity software. You get a full 144K of RAM — 128K of which the Mach II devotes to maintaining 16,000 hashtable positions. That means it doesn't have to re-analyze lines. That means it's stronger in the endgame than other chess computers. Which in turn means that it's a must-have for those who want a serious practice partner.

If that still doesn't turn your head, try this on for size: $289. That's a price-busting deal on a monster of a program — more than 40% off the $500 list price. But hurry! Quantities are limited. You may never see prices this low again! Get a Mach II while you can — before they're all gone.

Satisfaction guaranteed!

Try out the Mach II at no risk for 15 days. If you're not 100% delighted, return it with all original packing materials for a courteous refund. U.S. Chess guarantees it! Of course, you get a full 90-day warranty against manufacturer's defects.
