A WORD FROM THE EDITOR

James Hodina

Well another season is already upon us. A lot has transpired over the summer most important to CICL members was the Summer Business Meeting held at J I Case August 26 1992. I encourage everyone to read the Secretary's meeting minutes and the President's letter published in this issue to find out about the following topics: Alumni Status West Far West Realignment League Playoffs Award Status and more.

As pointed out in the President's Letter and the Summer Business Meeting Minutes it is requested that each division chairman submit a list of their team captains and division schedule to me for publication. Irwin Gaines has already done so and is published in this bulletin. Please use this as an example. In addition I would like to hear from the division chairman every month or two whether it be a letter or a phone call and get an update on what is going on in the division so I can pass it along to the rest of the CICL in the bulletin.

As requested in the summer business meeting I would like to announce the award categories for this season:

Best Attack or Sacrifice Leading to Victory

Best Endgame

Best Salvage

Best Upset

Best Annotated Game

As you may already see there is a new category Best Annotated Game. This award will be given for the best annotations in a game regardless of the outcome submitted to the editor. My wish is that this award will encourage more submissions to the editor and upgrade the quality of the bulletin. I can personally annotate many of the games that are submitted to the bulletin but have always espoused that the one playing the game can include a greater insight than I; history between the opponents time pressure post mortem etc. I am still accepting games from the playoffs for this year's awards but this is your last chance!

Some important dates to mark on your calendar:

April 7 1992	Spring Business Meeting
May 1992	Final playoff rounds
June 1992	Banquet

The team dues announcement is included in the bulletin. Please fill them out and submit to the CICL Treasurer Wes Underwood. Also in an effort to keep track of our alumni players a form is attached requesting their name and address. Please forward this to anyone who may be eligible for alumni status.

Welcome CTA! The Chicago Transit Authority will be manning two teams in the CICL this year. Both teams will be playing in the East Division. Abe Wilson the team captain stated at the summer business meeting that the CTA have many more players in the wings so we could be seeing more CTA teams in the future.

September 3, 1992

To All League Officers, Team Captains, and Players:

Welcome to the 1992-93 CICL season! The turnout at the Fall Business Meeting was very encouraging. Quite a few changes took place. While I encourage you to read the minutes of the meeting, I would like to highlight a couple of points that will affect many of us.

- 1) Probably the most notable change is that Alumni teams are now full status teams, eligible for the playoffs and regular trophies.
- 2) In the playoffs, if a board is forfeited, all boards below that board will also be forfeited.
- 3) To maximize league activity, a second-tier playoff has been added ("Reserve Section"); teams that finish 3rd and 4th in their division will qualify for this playoff, with a trophy awarded to the top team. Although we did not discuss it explicitly, I assume that all playoff rules and conventions will apply to this playoff as well. Any reasonable exceptions should be brought to my attention. A second playoff director would be a good idea. Volunteers?
- 4) The assembly's consensus was that the division chairmen should send a copy of their captain list to the bulletin editor for publication; they should also submit their local newsletters for publication as well. Elsewhere in this bulletin I have showcased a copy of the monthly status report that Reuben Reyes produced for the the East Division. I found his team and individual cross-tables interesting and valuable throughout the season. I would encourage the division chairmen to produce something of this nature, even though they may not have the means to create something as professional-looking. Volunteers interested in assisting their chairman in producing such a product should come forward, as Reuben did last season.
- 5) Welcome to our two new teams in the East Division, both from the Chicago Transit Authority!

A number of reminders:

- 1) In addition to sending a copy of the match result sheet to the Division Chairman, a copy must be sent to the Ratings Chairman. See the Officer List for addresses.
- 2) Last season's playoff games are eligible for this season's awards, provided they are published by the second bulletin. Publication of regular-season games improved last season, but where are all the playoff games?? Remember that games may be submitted anonymously, but they are not eligible for awards.

- 3) Please use our annual Alumni File form for any players who have departed that would like to stay in touch.
- 4) Please send in your team dues and/or subscriptions promptly (a form is provided in this bulletin). Last year's subscribers will not receive any further bulletins until payment is received.
- 5) Start thinking about the U. S. Amateur Team Championship, which will be held in the Chicago area next year, President's Day weekend. See my pre-season mailing for more information.
- 6) "Playoff Saturday" is scheduled for May 15. We should allow three weeks for the first round of the playoffs. Therefore, division chairmen should set their schedules such that their regular season ends no later than April 23, and preferably April 16 to allow for the unlikely event of a tie that cannot be broken by our extensive tie-breaking rules.

Well, that should be enough information to kick off the season. Gentlemen, start your pawns!

Sincerely,

Tony Jasaitis

Minutes

1. President Tony Jasaitis called the meeting to order at 7:09 PM.
2. The minutes of the Spring business meeting were accepted without revision.
3. Wes Underwood gave the Treasurer's report and distributed an accompanying document. Wes noted a net gain for the 1991-92 season of $278.87 and this was attributed to lower than expected bulletin and banquet costs. For the 1992-93 season he proposed a budget along similar lines as the previous season's. Fees will remain unchanged from last year.

Jim Brotsos questioned whether there would indeed be 26 teams in the League as was assumed in the proposed budget. Wes suggested that the budget could be amended at a later point if we end up with fewer than the projected 26 teams.

A question arose as to whether the $6 charged for additional bulletin subscriptions was sufficient to cover costs. After input from bulletin editor Jim Hodina it was decided that the cost was reasonable.

The Treasurer's report was accepted without modification by unanimous vote.

4. The following League positions were appointed:

Bulletin Editor	Jim Hodina
Ratings Chairman	Charlie Ward
Banquet Chairman	Satish Kale
Playoff TD	Satish Kale
Trophy Chairman	Bob Stoltz
Publicity Director	Tony Jasaitis

Duane Satterlee will also help out in the publicity department.

The question of division chairmen was deferred pending a discussion of a possible merger of the Near West and Far West divisions.

5. There was no old business.
6. By way of new business it was noted that Sears is moving from the East division to the North division. This reflects the company move to the Hoffman Estates area.

Also, the Bell Labs Indians will not participate in the League this year as they have been adversely impacted by a force reduction.

7. Abe Wilson of the Chicago Transit Authority spoke about chess activity within the CTA and interest in participating in the CIGL. Their home site would be at the Merchandise Mart. Based on a potential roster of 18 players, Abe was encouraged to enter two teams - an "A" and "B" team - in the East Division. Charlie Ward explained the rules governing multiple company teams. Some concern was expressed over the ability to contact CTA team captains. Abe indicated that he would be responsible for this. The admission of the CTA "A" and "B" teams was then unanimously approved.
8. The question of a possible merger of the Near West and Far West teams was raised. This had assumed importance with the loss of the Bell Labs Indians, which left the Far West Division with only three teams. Irwin Gaines and Bob Stoltz argued against the merger noting that it would be nice to preserve the identity of the Far West division and that geographic factors - long travel distances - militated against the move. One of the arguments in favor of merging the two divisions was that it would leave the unified division with a comparable number of teams relative to the North and East divisions. However, it was also pointed out that the North Division may end with as few as six team. In the end it was agreed that the two remaining Bell teams - the Dragons and the Royals - would move to the Far West division. This would leave 5 teams in the Near West and 5 in the Far West and keep travel distances within both divisions to a minimum. Questions regarding a broader realignment of the League will be considered at a later date.

9. The question of a revised status for alumni teams was raised. Al Litvinas had proposed a rule change at the Spring business meeting which would have ended the distinction between alumni teams and regular teams with regards to the playoffs. At the time Tony had formed a committee consisting of J. Brotsos, I. Gaines, A. Litvinas, R. Stoltz, and F. Suerth to consider the general issue of alumni teams.

Irwin Gaines argued that alumni teams should be treated equally (with regards to the playoffs) on the grounds that an alumni team could unfairly affect the standings within a division by not turning out in force for a critical game. He also observed that some of the more complicated suggestions regarding handicapping of alumni teams would be difficult to implement and subject to counter strategies.

Bob Stoltz spoke in favor of full status for alumni teams noting that his primary interest in the League was "to play chess and to have fun" and he looked forward to playing very strong alumni teams, should they arise.

Jim Brotsos noted that the concern expressed in the early days of the alumni teams - that they may come to dominate the League - has probably been mitigated by the new rule which permits players to play for their former companies.

Finally, a proposal to treat the alumni teams exactly the same as regular teams with regards to the playoffs was accepted unanimously with one abstention. There is no time limit associated with revision.

10. In order to increase interest and participation in the finals, Irwin Gaines proposed a playoff competition which would consist of the 3rd and 4th place finishers in all four divisions. This competition would take place in parallel with the traditional (first and second place) format. Presumably the Playoff Director would oversee both tourneys and a common playoff site would be used for the concluding rounds.

This proposal was accepted unanimously.

11. Bob Stoltz and Tony Jasaitis entered the following proposal:

"In a playoff match, after the grace period [if any] has expired for an absent player, the opposing team captain may require that a team move its board assignments upward to fill the gap in the lineup, with forfeits recorded on the bottom boards(s). Alternately, the team captain of the absent player may elect to not shift board assignments, but if the absent player indeed forfeits the game, all boards below him will also be recorded as forfeits."

This proposal was also accepted unanimously. It was noted that the new rule applies only to playoff games, where an unintended forfeiture is extremely unlikely.

12. A proposal to create an award for the most improved team was submitted by Tony:

"An award will be given to the team in the league which shows the greatest increase in its percentage record, and had a negative record in the prior season, and does not make the playoffs in the current season. Alumni teams are eligible for this award."

After some discussion the proposal was withdrawn.

13. A proposal to continue, at cost to the Treasury, the tradition begun by Russ Rzeszutko in awarding the Outstanding Team Captains in each division was submitted by Tony. This proposal was accepted by the following vote:

11	In favor
2	Opposed
1	Abstaining

The proposal also specifies that the awards be in the form of certificates.

14. The general issue of recognition for people serving the League was thrashed out. Tony was concerned by the uncodified way in which the Banquet Chairman, Tournament Director, and Trophy Chairman have come to receive free admission to the end of season banquet. A clear majority expressed the opinion, through a plebiscite, that these practices were sound.
15. The issue of dealing with questionable players was raised. Apparently there had been a single incident in which a player's identity was questioned and the player was unable or unwilling to provide identification. Charlie Ward stressed that there is already a procedure for dealing with this and other problems - to officially protest a match - and he cautioned against raising questions well after the fact.
16. Tony noted that the U. S. Amateur Team Championship will take place in Chicago early next year!
17. The question of insurance, motivated by J. I. Case's initial stance last year, was revisited. Tony related advice from the USCF's legal counsel which suggested that our first choice in such matters should be to avoid paying for insurance. If pressed, we should make the case that playing chess is an inherently low risk activity and that the League does not have a history of any incidents. This still leaves the case in which the League may be forced to acquire single event insurance in order to use a particular match site. Based on his own research, Tony felt that the premium for such an activity may run around $500, and that this was prohibitive.

18. Jim Hodina requested permission to revise one of the five "best" game prize categories - to drop the best all-around game and include a best annotated game award. He felt this would encourage the submission of annotated games; this would make his task easier. After some discussion the consensus was that the award categories should be up to the discretion of the Bulletin Editor (presently Jim) with the sole proviso that the rules be set for the season and published in the first bulletin. Jim was complimented on publishing running tallies on submissions to the various prize categories.

Jim also requested that the Division chairmen send him updates on a monthly or bimonthly basis throughout the regular season.

Charlie Ward also asked for the Division chairmen to send him a list of teams and team captains at the beginning of the season.

Charlie also stressed that the goal should be for each League team to participate in 10 regular season matches.

19. Tony then announced the following important dates:

April 7	Spring Business meeting
May 15	Final playoff rounds
June 11	Banquet

20. The meeting was adjourned at 9:49 PM.

CICL 1992 Playoffs
Round 2, Board 2, May 16, 92

Notes by Bill Friesema

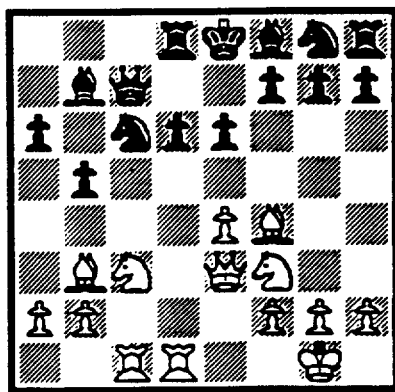

White jettisons a pawn and opens a huge lead in development, sprinting to the finish line after Black drops the pace.

1.e4, c5 2.d4, cxd4 3.c3, dxc3 4.Nxc3, d6 5.Bc4, e6 6.Nf3, a6 7.O-O, b5 8.Bb3, Bb7 9.Qe2, Nc6 10.Rd1, Rc8?! Black is neglecting King-side development and his Queen feels heat from the enemy Rook. Side-stepping by 10...Qc7 (and preparing a direct Rd8) is better.

11.Bf4 More speculative is 11.e5, d5 (...Qc7? 12.Nd5!) 12.Bxd5, exd5 13.Nxd5, Qa5 14.Be3. At game time it seemed wiser to develop with initiative. The chosen move not only piles pressure on d6, but also vacates c1 for the other Rook.

11...Qc7 12.Rac1, Rd8 With a static King side and with the Queen in harm's way, Black does not have the luxury of moving the Rook a second time. 12...Be7 providing King shelter and a promise of castling is better.

13.Qe3!

After 13.Qe3!

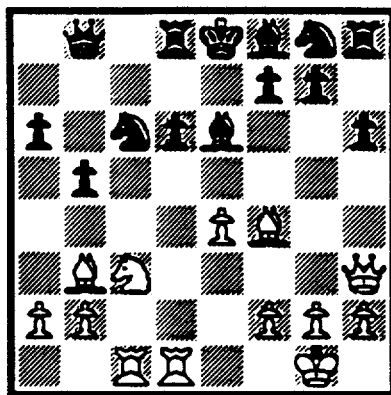

A move that works overtime. The Queen now watches b6, mutually guards the f4 Bishop, encourages Nd5 and prepares a King side commute. I thought long and hard about 13.Nd5, but the simple reply 13...Qb8 didn't seem to buy White much. If 13...exd5 instead, Black has plenty of problems after 14.exd5+, Qe7 15.Qd2, Ne5 16.Nxe5, dxe5 17.Bxe5.

13...Qb8 14.Ng5! With development completed, White probes the soft e6 spot.

14...h6? Weakens the King-side and speeds White's attack.

15.Qh3, Bc8 16.Nxe6!!, Bxe6.

After 16.Nxe6!! Bxe6

Slipping into a Black hole. Since the e6 Knight is pinned, a more enterprising try would have been: 16...Nge7 17.Nxd8, Bxh3 18.Nxf7, Ng6 19.Nxd6+, Bxd6 20.Bxd6, Qc8 21.gxh3, Qxh3 but 22.Nd5 should be sufficient to win; e.g.: 22...Qg4+ (or 22...Nh5 23.Nc7+, Kd8 (Kd7 24.Be6+) 24.Bg3+, Ke7 25.Bxh4+, Qxh4 26.Rxc6 wins) 23.Kf1, Qh3+ 24.Ke1, Qf3 25.Nc7+, Kd8 26.Ne6+, Ke8 27.Nxg7+ Kd8 28.Bg3+ and the King gets ventilated in the cross-fire.

17.Bxe6, fxe6 18.Qxe6+, Be7 19.e5! Making good use of the pawn pin against the Knight to pry open lines to the King. If 19.Nd5 directly, Black can swing the Queen to the defense via 19...Qc8. After 19.e5 ...Qc8 is met by 20.Qg6+, Kf8 21.e6.

19...Nxe5 20.Nd5! Seals White's grip on the c file.

20...Kf8 21.Rc7, Nf7. Good moves hide from Black as his position implodes. If 21...Re8 then 22.Bxe5, dxe5 23.Rd3, e4 24.Nf4 g5, 25.Ng6+, Kg7 26.Ne5.

22.Nxe7, 1-0 Mate can be put off for 3 moves at most.

CICL Playoffs
Round 2, Board 5, May 16, 1992

Annotations by Pat Sajbel

1. e4, c5 2.Nf3, d6 3.Bc4, e6 4.Nc3, a6 5.a4, Nc6 6.O-O, Nf6 7.d4, cxd4 8.Nxd4, Be7 9.f4, Nxe4 10.Nxc6, bxc6 11.Nxe4, Nxc6 12.Bd3, dxe4 13.Bxe4, Qb6+ 14.Kh1, O-O 15.Rf3, Rd8 16.Bxh7+.

After 16.Bxh7+

I thought that this was an entertaining game. My sacrifice [16.Bxh7+] was speculative. After the game I reviewed this with Irwin Gaines and several others. Accepting the sacrifice could have "forced" a draw. With this being the playoffs, I thought that it was a good time to gamble - so did Irwin Gaines when he rejected the sac.

16..., Kh8 17.Bd3, e5 18.fxe5. A win was missed with Rh3+ instead forcing mate.

18..., Bg4 19.Rh3+, Kg8 20.Qxg4, f5 21.Qxf5, Qd4 22.Rh8+, Resigns.

Gentlemen: NORTH DIVISION

Welcome to another year of exciting CICL action.

The North Division has picked up a new team, Sears, which is moving from the Loop to Hoffman Estates. All the other teams are also returning. Please note that Sears is still in the process of moving and that they will not have a playing site for the first half of the season. Team Captains should expect all Sears matches to be held away from Sears for at least the first few rounds.

The following major items were decided at the fall business meeting:

- 1) Alumni teams will now be eligible for the playoffs.
- 2) A "reserve" playoff section, consisting of the 3rd and 4th place teams in each division will be formed.
- 3) All divisions will strive for a 10 game schedule.

The format for this season's play will be as follows:

An 8 team round robin will be conducted among all division members. Following the round robin, the top 4 teams will play a round robin among themselves to determine the 4 playoff seed positions, and the bottom 4 teams will play a round robin among themselves to finish out their schedule.

In the event that ties prohibit a clean split between the top 4 and bottom 4 (following the first 8 team round robin schedule), I will reserve the right to change this system. However, just so everyone is on same page at this point, this is how I plan to do it. Tiebreak procedures, if required, will be applied according to the usual CICL rules.

In other news, the Fischer-Spassky match is scheduled to begin September 2, 20 years to the day following the end of the 1972 Fischer-Spassky match. I am highly skeptical that the match will actually occur. But it is fun to speculate in any case.

RE: 1992-93 CICL Schedule

Welcome to the 1992-1993 CICL season. There have been some significant changes in the league this year, some of which are evident from the enclosed schedule, while others are not. In particular:

1) The Far West division was saved from the brink of extinction by moving the two remaining Bell Labs teams into our division from the Near West and playing a interlocked schedule with the Near West Division. Each Division now has 5 teams, and each will play a double round robin plus two interdivisional matches for a total of 10 matches.

2) Third and fourth place teams in each division are now eligible for a reserve section of the playoffs, conducted as a three round Swiss just like the championship playoffs, with a trophies going to the top team in the reserve section.

3) Alumni teams are now eligible for the championship (and reserve) playoffs just like any other team.

Enclosed are the schedule and list of captains in our division (and in the Near West). Please let me know of any mistakes on the list of captains, especially since we have new captains and new teams (and let me know of home telephone numbers or FAX numbers if you would like them listed).

Note that league rules again this year require home team captains to send copies of the match results to both the division chairman and the ratings chairman. Please send in the results of each match by the completion date for the round so that the matches can be rated promptly. If you can, use FAX: my FAX number is 840-2783, and the rating chairman (Charlie Ward)'s FAX number is 979-8451. (And for those cross division matches where the Far West teams are the visiting teams, could the Far West captains please send me a copy of the match result...the Near West captain will send the "official" copy to the Near West chairman and the ratings chairman. Thanks.)

As in the past, the top two finishers in our division will go to the championship playoffs (and the third and fourth place finishers will go to the reserve playoffs). Any ties will be broken by the following tie-break procedure in the order listed (as stipulated in the league rules):

- 1) head-to-head match points during the season
- 2) head-to-head game points during the season
- 3) total game points during the season
- 4) sum of match points of beaten opponents plus half the match points of drawn opponents
- 5) same as (4) but with game points

In the incredibly unlikely case that teams are still tied a playoff match to resolve the tie must be completed by Apr 17

Sears wins title on tie-break; Friesema gets MVP for 10-0 record

Sears has taken the East Division title on tie break and Bill Friesema has won the MVP award. Division chairman Bill Cooper announced this recently in closing the regular 1991-92 season in the East Division.

Sears rose even with CRT on the strength of a 4.5-1.5 win over Continental Bank as CRT slowed down to a 3-3 tie against Alumni Central.

Friesema won the MVP award from a sterling performance which saw the CRT board 2 player sweep through 10 rounds untied and unbeaten.

Cooper sent his best wishes to Sears and CRT in the playoffs. He thanked the captain of the Sears team for providing the East Division with up-to-date results in the division. Finally, Cooper divulged that in consultation with ICL president Tony Jasatus and other ED captains, plans are afoot to replace the 3-round Swiss position rounds with a modified Swiss system.

The 2 Squares Columns

by Marv Cox

"If two (or more) squares are attacked more time than they are defended they may fall."

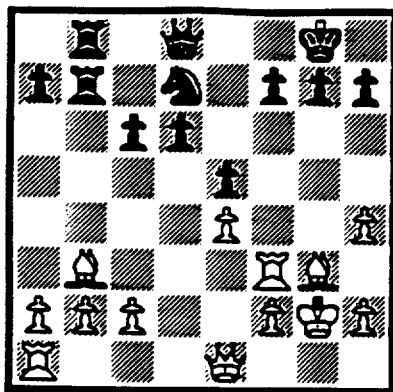

Diagram 45

My uncle having the black pieces in diagram 45 moved his bishop from e6 to g4. Did he really expect me to take the f7 pawn with my bishop and then he would win the exchange from me after moving his king to f8? My mama ain't raised no stupids, no how. But suppose I take the f7 pawn with my rook. He'll take my bishop on b3 with his rook so as to come out a bishop ahead after the rook wexchange. My rook is now sentenced to death (a renegade). But I can fox my uncle by having the renegade rook take the black knight with it to chess heaven. I would be a pawn ahead after the rook exchange. I'll get him this time!

1..., Bg4 2. Rxf7, Rxb3. Going as expected.

3.Rxd7, Rxc3+. What??

And I've lost a minor piece for the pawn I've gained. He did it to me again! I hadn't taken into account that his rook had also become a renegade and would take one of my pieces with it when it expired.

"If two (or more) squares are attacked more times than they are defended they may fall."

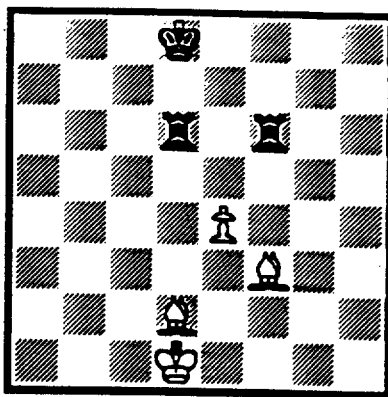

Diagram 46

The idea of a renegade chess piece was expounded a long, long time ago. In as much as it can be a tactical weapon I'll show a bare bones example in diagram 46. It is White's move. Black is attacking a bishop on f3. The square d2 is attacked once by Black and defended once by Black and defended once by White. White can fork the rooks with his pawn.

1. e5. White expects to gain the exchange after Rxf3 and exd6. However, his move was faulty because the black rook on d6 is condemned to death. It is a renegade on the loose and will take whatever it can with it to the graveyard.

1.Rxd2+. The renegade strikes!

2.Kxd2, Rxf3. And white has lost two bishops for a rook.

Incidentally, this was an example of the Two-Squares thory. The two squares d2 and f3 were attacked twice and guarded only once, so might fall. A renegade piece is generally effective if at time it makes the capture it also does one of the following: 1. Check or threaten mate; 2. Attack a valuable piece; 3. Threaten to help a pawn queen.
