

January 24, 1994

CICL Division Chairmen:

CICL President Jim Hodina has informed me that that Len Weber, our CICL Bulletin editor, no longer works at Grolier Subsidiaries and cannot currently be located. The December issue of the CICL Bulletin is apparently a casualty of this change.

Jim asked me to send the ratings material that would have appeared in the December issue directly to the four Division chairmen. You are requested to arrange for the team captains in your divisions to receive copies of this material. (I will however handle distributing copies to the AT&T team captains myself.)

Jim is arranging to have Marty Franek take over production of the Bulletin. The attached information reflects only match results received by me through December 19. Ratings and standings reflecting more recent results are expected to be published in the first issue of the Bulletin handled by Marty. Jim and I agreed that it would be preferable to get this information to you now rather than incur the additional delay involved in rating the match results that I have received since Christmas.

Attached below is a note that was to have appeared in the December Bulletin along with the ratings information.

-- Charlie Ward
CICL Ratings Chairman

RATINGS CHAIRMAN'S REPORT

The new team from Unilever is playing an exhibition schedule with teams from the Near West division. The results of their first four games are included in the match results in this issue. However, in agreement with their exhibition status their results are not included in the division standings. To date, their team record is 0-3-1; in the four matches, they have scored six game points.
